In Dedication — Miss Barbara Clark

It is with extreme pleasure that the students of St. Luke's School of Nursing dedicate their yearbook to Miss Barbara Clark.

By this dedication we students hope to convey to her our appreciation for her part in making our years at St. Luke's a meaningful experience. Each individual student has, in some way, been influenced by her sincere interest and capable guidance.

As an instructor in Fundamentals of Nursing she has started many students on a successful road to nursing. As advisor to the senior class of 1963, we are especially grateful for her active participation and hard work. Our deepest gratitude and the dedication of the 1963 yearbook go to you, Miss Clark.

Diane Marx
St. Luke's Miss Student Nurse 1962

Miss Diane Marx was selected Miss Student Nurse of St. Luke's Hospital School of Nursing in 1962. After being nominated by the faculty, she was given this honor in an election by the student body from a list of three candidates.

Graduation

Participants in graduation exercises were Miss Carol Randall, Rev. Richard T. Giesel, Miss Carol Diller, and Chaplain Rev. Bentzinger.

The Long Awaited Day

At last the day long awaited by members of the senior class arrived. It seemed such a short time ago that we walked up the aisle to have our school cap placed upon our heads signifying the true beginning of our nursing career. Two years later we again proceeded up the aisle, this time to receive our school pin and diploma. Many feelings were experienced on graduation day—feelings of sadness, gladness, accomplishment, and above all a feeling of joy and anticipation as to what the future would bring.

The long awaited hour is almost here for these finishing seniors as they wait to file into the church for graduation.

Christmas Around the World

The theme of this year's Christmas Bazaar was "Christmas Around the World." It was sponsored by the entire school rather than the Senior Class as it has been in the past. The proceeds from the bazaar were used for the production of our school yearbook. Judges this year were Miss Gallagher, Dr. Dakers and Dr. Lanning. The senior booth was awarded first prize. Second prize went to the freshmen on the second floor of the east wing.

Stunt night staged annually in Prentiss Auditorium was held March 15 and carried the theme "Memorable Moments." Senior Mardy Jacobs acted as Mistress of Ceremonies as the freshmen presented "Remember When," an amusing reminiscence of fond memories via telephone; the juniors, a comical "40th Annual Miss America Pageant;" and the seniors, a subtle satire on Mr. "K's" visit to the States in "Khrushchev U.S.A.—U.S.S.R." The judges' decision to award the trophy to the seniors, Class of 1963, was based on originality, costumes, scenery, and class participation.
